

Understanding a poem and sorting verbs and nouns

Instructions: Read the poem. Then answer the questions.

A long, sunny day

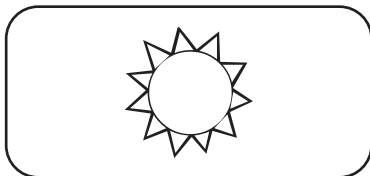

Let us go to the big blue sea.
 The sea is calling to you and to me.
 We play in the sand. We duck under waves.
 The wind blows our hair so wildly.

Let us go to the big blue sea.
 We ride in a boat. We rest under a tree.
 We eat by the shore. We read a fun book.
 We rest for a bit when we get sleepy.

Let us go to the big blue sea.
 The sea is calling to you and to me.
 We will have a lot of fun.
 Let us go one long, sunny day.

Instructions: Write a word from the poem to complete each sentence.

1. When the sun shines
 it is _____.

2. To go under something is to _____.

Directions: Write N if the word is a noun. Write V if the word is a verb.

_____ sea

_____ read

_____ jump

_____ eat

_____ sand

_____ book

_____ shore

_____ go

_____ tree

_____ calling

Directions: Read the line from the poem. Then answer the question.

We nap for a bit when we get sleepy.

Which is the correct meaning for the word bit in the sentence?

- A. to have put your teeth into it
- B. a short time

Understanding a poem and sorting verbs and nouns

Instructions: Read the poem. Then answer the questions.

A long, sunny day

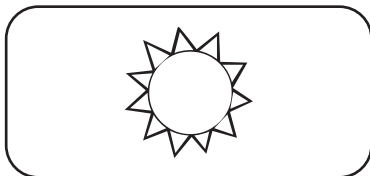

Let us go to the big blue sea.
 The sea is calling to you and to me.
 We play in the sand. We duck under waves.
 The wind blows our hair so wildly.

Let us go to the big blue sea.
 We ride in a boat. We rest under a tree.
 We eat by the shore. We read a fun book.
 We rest for a bit when we get sleepy.

Let us go to the big blue sea.
 The sea is calling to you and to me.
 We will have a lot of fun.
 Let us go one long, sunny day.

Instructions: Write a word from the poem to complete each sentence.

1. When the sun shines
 it is sunny .

2. To go under something
 is to duck .

Directions: Write N if the word is a noun. Write V if the word is a verb.

 N sea

 V read

 V jump

 V eat

 N sand

 N book

 N shore

 V go

 N tree

 V calling

Directions: Read the line from the poem. Then answer the question.

We nap for a bit when we get sleepy.

Which is the correct meaning for the word bit in the sentence?

- A. to have put your teeth into it
- B. a short time