

Summarising to recall, inform and organise

Instructions: Use the words below to complete the sentences about the water cycle.

Word bank

sun

cycle

rain

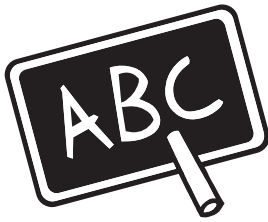

drops

puddle

cloud

1. When the raindrops fall from the sky, they may form a _____.
2. When the _____ comes out, it heats the water.
3. Tiny _____ of water may turn into water vapour.
4. The water vapour forms a _____ in the sky.
5. When the cloud gets heavy, it causes the _____ to fall.
6. Then the steps starts again. This is called the water _____.

Instructions: Write a short paragraph explaining why you think the water cycle is important.

Summarising to recall, inform and organise

Instructions: Use the words below to complete the sentences about the water cycle.

Word bank

sun cycle rain drops puddle cloud

1. When the raindrops fall from the sky, they may form a puddle .
2. When the sun comes out, it heats the water.
3. Tiny drops of water may turn into water vapour.
4. The water vapour forms a cloud in the sky.
5. When the cloud gets heavy, it causes the rain to fall.
6. Then the steps starts again. This is called the water cycle .

Instructions: Write a short paragraph explaining why you think the water cycle is important.

Answers will vary.
