

Using the table of contents

Instructions: Read the title page and table of contents. Then complete the activities that follow.

Animals and their Food

Written by
Alexis Barfoot

Photographs by
Karl Simmonds

Fantastic Facts Publishing
London

Chapter 1: Carnivore or Herbivore	4
Wolves love meat!	10
Snapping up flies with the praying mantis	23
How much fruit can a toucan eat?	35
Chapter 2: Adapted for Hunting	42
Strong and fast	56
Teeth and claws	60
A poisonous bite	69
Chapter 3: What Do Insects Eat?	80
Bloodsuckers	88
Catching and trapping prey	97
Voracious plant-eaters	110
Chapter 4: Amazing Amphibians	123
Jumping frogs	127
A flick of a sticky tongue	128
Creep up slowly - then pounce!	145

1. Circle the title of the book.
2. Draw a line under the name of the author.
3. Draw a box around the page number for the section about bloodsucking insects.
4. Draw a box around the name of the photographer.
5. Draw a circle around the title of Chapter 4.

Instructions: For each question, write the answer on the lines that follow.

6. Which chapter has information about animals that hunt?

7. Which chapter has information about herbivores?

8. To learn about toucans, read pages _____ to _____ .

9. To find out how frogs use their tongues to catch prey, read pages

_____ to _____ .

10. Which chapter has information about animals' teeth?

Using the table of contents

Instructions: Read the title page and table of contents. Then complete the activities that follow.

Animals and their Food

Written by
Alexis Barfoot

Photographs by
Karl Simmonds

Fantastic Facts Publishing
London

Chapter 1: Carnivore or Herbivore	4
Wolves love meat!	10
Snapping up flies with the praying mantis	23
How much fruit can a toucan eat?	35
Chapter 2: Adapted for Hunting	42
Strong and fast	56
Teeth and claws	60
A poisonous bite	69
Chapter 3: What Do Insects Eat?	80
Bloodsuckers	88
Catching and trapping prey	97
Voracious plant-eaters	110
Chapter 4: Amazing Amphibians	123
Jumping frogs	127
A flick of a sticky tongue	128
Creep up slowly - then pounce!	145

1. Circle the title of the book.
2. Draw a line under the name of the author.
3. Draw a box around the page number for the section about bloodsucking insects.
4. Draw a box around the name of the photographer.
5. Draw a circle around the title of Chapter 4.

Instructions: For each question, write the answer on the lines that follow.

6. Which chapter has information about animals that hunt?

Chapter 2

7. Which chapter has information about herbivores?

Chapter 1

8. To learn about toucans, read pages 35 to 41 .

9. To find out how frogs use their tongues to catch prey, read pages

128 to 144 .

10. Which chapter has information about animals' teeth?

Chapter 2