

Identifying nouns used as adjectives

Directions: Underline the noun used as an adjective in each sentence. Then circle the noun it modifies.

Example: A piano(player)entertained the guests.

1. Did you speak to the newspaper reporter?
2. My parents gave me a new tennis racket.
3. Please change the light bulb in the den.
4. The soldiers practised under battle conditions.
5. In warm weather everyone works in shirt sleeves .
6. Were you able to repair the desk lamp?
7. Many good hotels still provide room service.
8. After dinner, the whole family watched the television news.
9. Building stone walls helps him relax.
10. What does that traffic sign say?
11. The south coast is a beautiful holiday area.
12. He just concluded a whirlwind tour of the Europe.
13. Bob ordered a salad greens from the menu.
14. Your English class meets after lunch.
15. Following the football match, we went home for dinner.
16. The holiday celebration began early this year.
17. My sister played two Mozart symphonies.
18. The Roman togas for the play were really well made.
19. Has your gold watch been repaired?
20. A new war memorial has been dedicated in Oxford.
21. Who would like to do a report for World History?
22. We read about the history of the Victorian era.
23. I have pictures of the baseball stadium we visited last summer.
24. She quickly ate the cheese sandwich.

Identifying nouns used as adjectives

Directions: Underline the noun used as an adjective in each sentence. Then circle the noun it modifies.

Example: A piano(player)entertained the guests.

1. Did you speak to the newspaper(reporter)?
2. My parents gave me a new tennis(racket).
3. Please change the light(bulb)in the den.
4. The soldiers practised under battle(conditions)
5. In warm weather everyone works in shirt(sleeves).
6. Were you able to repair the desk(lamp)?
7. Many good hotels still provide room(service).
8. After dinner, the whole family watched the television(news)
9. Building stone(walls)helps him relax.
10. What does that traffic(sign)say?
11. The south(coast)is a beautiful holiday area.
12. He just concluded a whirlwind(tour)of the Europe.
13. Bob ordered a salad(greens)from the menu.
14. Your English(class)meets after lunch.
15. Following the football(match) we went home for dinner.
16. The holiday(celebration)began early this year.
17. My sister played two Mozart(symphonies).
18. The Roman(togas)for the play were really well made.
19. Has your gold(watch)been repaired?
20. A new war(memorial)has been dedicated in Oxford.
21. Who would like to do a report for World(History)?
22. We read about the history of the Victorian(era).
23. I have pictures of the baseball(stadium)we visited last summer.
24. She quickly ate the cheese(sandwich)